Note Continued

An enquiry was accordingly made of the Inspector-General of Education in his Office no 983 dated the 23rd August 1905, but no reply was received from him on the points raised therein.

In his present communication no $\frac{9737}{1915}$ dated the 7th June 1906 Mr Bhabha has again strongly recommended the said Mahammad Abdulla Sahamanthy for an increase of Rs 8, raising his pay to Rs 20 per mensem.

Muzrai Secretary's remarks:—

Mr. Bhabha has been strongly recommending this old teacher Mohomed

Abdulla, and also spoke personally to me about him. I have already recommended him for promotion in pages 3 & 4 of this note. As the school consists of only elementary classes, the students do not appear to have passed Examinations, but the teacher now recommended is doing steady good work. I would therefore respectfully submit that his pay may be increased to Rs 17-8-0 which was the former Head Master's pay

There are savings amounting to Rs 29 a month in the Pandit Pabli of the Gumbaz
